JUCE TV Network features story behind new radio single

The JUCE TV Network recently featured the story behind "Restore Me" on their Facebook page. "Restore Me" is the new Christian radio single from Laura Kaczor and the title track from her latest release. You can check out the story below. JUCE TV is the youth channel for the world renowned TBN television network.

Restore Me, the title track, was the first song Amy Lewis Strother and I wrote for the new album and one of the first songs that producer Ian Eskelin picked to record.

Amy and I felt pretty 'broken' and 'beat up' at the time, a lot stemming from all the striving, all the competition that is just part of the 'music business' itself and we reflected on our need for restoration. Where does it come from and how do we get it?

"When this world has me broken and feeling like I can't win, I run to You, You're all I need, only You, Restore Me." The Lord is the only One or 'thing' that restores us. And what is it really about the Lord that restores us? It is His UNCONDITIONAL LOVE, demonstrated on the CROSS... Jesus said, "Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." John 15:13. "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 8:38,39.

But do we really believe and receive that love for ourselves? “Nothing I could ever do could change who I am to You.... In this I find my REST, at my worst and at my best, You couldn’t love me more or less.”

There is so much ‘performance oriented Christianity’ in the church and the world, that so many of us are under the bondage of having our identity and worth in what we DO instead of just BEING who we are. And BEING a child of the Living God, is ENOUGH, because He loves us unconditionally, just because that is who we are, His child. We do not have to prove anything to Him OR to the world to receive His love.

So much of the world is about beauty also. So where does true beauty and our true identity really come from? “Lord You are the Maker of everything lovely, Creator of the Universe”....which we all know is beautiful, so does that really include ME? YES! No matter what, we ARE beautiful to the Lord and loved by Him....and that is the only thing that matters. “Creator of the Universe, let Your love surround me.”

Although this was written before I was even pregnant, giving birth to my first son, Samuel, born with a large hole in his heart and going through his surgery to fix it, prompted many unanswered questions like, why me, I was serving God, what did I do or not do? Does the Lord love me less that this would happen to us? And the one thing that I learned, we may not have answers in this life, but His steadfast love is our only constant, His direct words, comfort and help through the very real presence of Jesus Christ was my greatest strength and His unconditional love was never so close to us than when we went through this trial.

“I know nothing that I can do, could change who I am to You. Every day, You are the strength I need for every step and every breath I breathe. And in this truth, I find my rest, at my worst and at my best, You couldn’t love me more or less.”

“Only YOU restore me....” - Laura Kaczor
